WASHINGTON STATE DEPARTMENT OF LICENSING

Fuel Tax Application

Use this application to obtain a Fuel Tax license. You can also apply online through the Taxpayer Access Point (TAP) at: https://wadolprft.gentax.com/TAP/_/

License types

Supplier License: Allows the purchase and storage of non-taxed fuel within the bulk transfer-terminal system. It also allows for export and import of fuel.

Distributor License: Allows the tax-free purchase of fuel from a licensed supplier for immediate export to a destination outside the state and the importation of fuel into the state by rail car or tanker truck. It also allows a tax-deferred purchase of motor fuel or special fuel from a licensed supplier and the tax-exempt sale of fuel to qualifying entities.

Blender License: Allows the blending of taxed fuel with untaxed liquids to produce motor or special fuel, including alternative fuels (biodiesel, ethanol, etc.) and for the production of alternative fuels outside the bulk transfer-terminal system. Tax is imposed upon the volume of product not previously taxed.

Aircraft Fuel Distributor License: Allows the purchase of non-taxed aircraft fuel for resale.

Terminal License: Requires the reporting of fuel movement in IRS registered terminals within Washington State. A separate license is required for each terminal location. However, you may apply for all locations using a single application.

Fuel Carrier License: For railroads operating in Washington.

Licensing requirements checklist

Use this checklist to complete your application for a fuel tax license. Do not include it with your application documents. Prior to completing your fuel tax license application, register your business with Business Licensing Services at the Department of Revenue (www.dor.wa.gov) to obtain a Unified Business Identifier (UBI). If registering as a corporation, limited liability company, or partnership, contact the Secretary of State's office (www.sos.wa.gov).

General Requirements:

- ☐ Application
- ☐ Each corporate officer or partner listed on the application (limit 3) must complete the employment or business history section of this application.
- ☐ Provide an original surety tax bond. Instructions for calculating the bond amount are included in the bond instructions. An aircraft license requires a separate bond. Terminal operators and fuel carriers are not required to have bond coverage.

Fuel Terminal operators provide:

- ☐ Copy of the federal excise tax registration (IRS form 637) authorizing tax-free transactions in the bulk transfer-terminal system.

Fuel suppliers provide:

- ☐ Copy of the federal excise tax registration (IRS form 637) authorizing tax-free transactions in the bulk transfer-terminal system.
- ☐ Copies of licenses issued by jurisdictions (states and Canadian Provinces) from which fuel is imported from or to where fuel is exported. If you plan to import from or export to a jurisdiction which does not require a license, you must provide a written statement.

Fuel distributors provide:

- ☐ Copies of licenses issued by jurisdictions (states and Canadian Provinces) from which fuel is imported from or to where fuel is exported. If you plan to import from or export to a jurisdiction which does not require a license, you must provide a written statement.

Fuel Blenders provide:

- ☐ Copy of federal excise tax registration (IRS form 637) authorizing the production of biodiesel or ethanol and the blending of these with petroleum products. If you are blending other products to make taxable fuel, contact us regarding requirements.
