Off-Road Motorcycle Highway Use Declaration

WASHINGTON STATE DEPARTMENT OF LICENSING

Use this form to certify and register a 2-wheeled, off-road motorcycle for highway and public roadway use. This applies to motorcycles originally labeled by the manufacturer as off-road use only. Any off-road motorcycle having more than 2 wheels is not eligible for this certification. For additional information, visit dol.wa.gov.

The operator of the motorcycle must have a valid Washington driver license and motorcycle endorsement. To register your off-road motorcycle for highway and public roadway use, you must:

- Have your motorcycle inspected by a licensed Washington motorcycle dealer or repair shop.
- Have the dealer or repair shop fill out Section 1 and attach the inspection fee receipt.
- Complete Section 2 and take this form and ownership documents to any vehicle licensing office.

1. Dealer or repair shop—Complete and sign. You are entitled to an inspection fee up to $100. It must be paid directly to you. Attach a copy of the receipt showing amount charged.
