Home Inspectors Board Accepting Applicants

Two Open Seats Anticipated in 2016 on Home Inspectors Board

Home Inspectors Board Mission

To uphold, protect, and promote the public interest, which embraces both the interests of regulated licensees and entities and the interests of consumers, by the fair and impartial development and administration of the licensing laws and regulations.

About The Home Inspectors Board

The Washington State Home Inspectors Board (Board) was established in 2008 to advise the director of the Department of Licensing (DOL) in the administration of the Home Inspectors Law (RCW 18.280).

In its work, the Board reviews and recommends to the director revisions and additions to rules concerning the education, licensing, and standards of practice for home inspectors working in Washington. The Board is also responsible for recommending to the director updates to the Fundamentals of Home Inspection (CORE) Course Curriculum, as well as authorizing education providers to implement the curriculum.

The board consists of seven members, each appointed by the director. Of the members, six must be currently employed as home inspectors, and one member must be a teacher in a home inspector education program.

Duties and Qualifications

The Washington State Department of Licensing (DOL) is recruiting a highly-qualified home inspector with an interest in sector growth, inclusion, and innovation to fill one (1) open seat on the Washington State Home Inspectors Board.

This is a three- (3) year appointment.

This position is entitled to compensation for each day spent conducting official business and to reimbursement for travel expenses.

The Board generally meets quarterly at varying locations in Washington. Meetings are typically from 9 a.m.-3 p.m., but may run shorter or longer depending on the agenda topics to be covered. Members are expected to attend and to remain engaged during quarterly meetings, offering their expertise and collaborating with their peers in a transparent manner.

During their terms, all members may expect to engage in committee work outside of the quarterly meetings. Committees may convene both telephonically and in person at varying locations in Washington.

We are committed to providing equal access to our services. If you need special accommodation, please call (360) 664-6505 or TTY 664-0116

As noted above, the candidate selected for this position will be directly involved in recommendations to the director regarding a number of topics affecting home inspectors in Washington.
