

Non-Resident Military Affidavit for Exemption of Excise Tax

You may not have to pay vehicle excise tax or RTA tax when you license your vehicle in Washington. This includes:

- Active-duty members of the United States Armed Forces
- Commissioned officers of the public health service
- National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Agency personnel
- Coast Guard (including personnel living in Washington but assigned to duty in the Portland, Oregon area)

To qualify for these tax exemptions when you license your vehicle in Washington, you must:

- Certify your home of record is in a state or country other than Washington.
- Be the registered owner or co-registered owner of the vehicle seeking the excise tax exemption
- Present a Leave and Earnings Statement (LES) showing your home of record.

Complete this form and take with any required documents to any vehicle licensing office.

Vehicle

License plate number		Vehicle Identification Number (VIN)
Model year	Make	Model	Body type

Owner statement

I, _____, certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that I am the registered owner or co-owner of the vehicle described above. Military records on file show that my legal residence is in the state of _____.

I am registered to vote in the state of _____.

Signature X	Grade	Rank
Complete military mailing address (Include unit and installation and home port if stationed aboard ship.) _____

Anyone who knowingly makes a false statement may be guilty of a felony under state law and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine, imprisonment, or both. The Department of Licensing may verify the information provided with the service member's command.