Definitions

- Aviation gasoline is fuel used in aircraft reciprocating engines.
- Jet fuel is fuel used in aircraft turbojet and turboprop engines.

Required attachments

- Receipts schedule: Complete one for each schedule type and product code.
- Disbursements schedule: Complete one for each schedule type and product code.

All forms must comply with the Department of Licensing (DOL) reporting requirements, use a minimum of 10 point font, and include all necessary data elements listed on the approved DOL forms.

Return type

Check each box that applies:

No Operations: You must file a tax return even if you had no activity for that reporting period. If you do not file monthly, your license will be revoked.

Amended Return: To report changes for a previous filing

- Prepare schedules with changes, entering corrected information only.
- Show removed loads as negatives. Do not include supporting schedules for lines that have not changed.
- Complete a new tax return for reporting and include corrected figures.
- Record any payments made with the original tax return on line 25. Include penalty and interest with any additional taxes owing.

Cancel license—date effective: The date is the day you stopped business operations. Tax returns must be filed through this date and taxes paid on remaining inventory.

Tax Calculation

Convert liters to gallons at the rate of 3.785 liters per gallon and round all reported fuel to the nearest whole gallon.

Signature required

Sign, date, and complete contact information for the person authorized to sign the tax return.

Penalty and interest

Tax returns and payments are due on or before the 25th day of the month following the reporting period. The postmark on the mailing envelope is used as the receipt date. Payments received after the due date will be assessed a penalty of 10% of the tax due. Interest is 1% of the amount due per month.

Payments

- Make checks payable to the Department of Licensing in U.S. funds.
- All payments of $50,000 or greater must be made in electronic funds (EFT).

Records

Records must be kept for five years from the reporting period for all fuel received, sold, distributed, or used for own consumption. Information may be disclosed to the Internal Revenue Service.
