

June update

Release 2 Fuel Tax, Refund, Audit, Financial Review and Collections

- Implementation of Release 2.1 of the PRFT Modernization system has been completed.
- Fuel Tax customers must register before the first tax filing in August 2016.
- Implementation of Release 2.2 has been completed; this impacts the customers in Unlicensed Refund and Fuel Tax accounts. These customers can now file and pay online via TAP.
- Preparation is underway for Release 2.3 – scheduled to “go live” on August 15, 2016. This will impact our Audit unit. It will provide them with the infra-structure to begin using the system for audit documentation and findings. Staff are designing scripts for testing and configuration sessions along with identifying training schedules. This release also includes an electronic refunds option for customers via TAP.

Fuel Tax Consolidation Law - reminder

July 1, the fuel tax requirements are changing with impacts to license types, language, and the Revised Code of Washington (RCWs) for motor, special, and aircraft fuel.

The new law will:

- Consolidate 13 license types into 4;
- Simplify and update the Washington State fuel tax statutes;
- Creates two new registrations, bonding, and reporting requirements for Terminal Operators and Fuel Carriers.

Customers will need to:

- Submit new applications;
- Submit new bonds;
- Terminal Operators become licensed;
- All customers including Fuel Carriers and Terminal Operators may register in TAP.

More information can be found on our webpage Fuel Tax Consolidation law.
