License Query System step-by-step instructions for looking up Driver Training Schools

From the dol.wa.gov home page click on "Look up a professional or business license" or go to the page directly: http://www.dol.wa.gov/business/checkstatus.html.
License Query System step-by-step instructions for looking up Driver Training Schools

Click on "Search business and professional licenses"
License Query System step-by-step instructions for looking up Driver Training Schools

Click on the "License Type" dropdown and choose Driver Training School.
License Query System step-by-step instructions for looking up Driver Training Schools

Click on the “County” dropdown and select the county in which you’re looking for Driver Training Schools.

For the rest of the way, we’re using Thurston County as an example.
License Query System step-by-step instructions for looking up Driver Training Schools

Click on "Search"
License Query System step-by-step instructions for looking up Driver Training Schools

Make sure “Search for All Driver Training School” is checked and click on “Continue”.
License Query System step-by-step instructions for looking up Driver Training Schools

Click on the title of the school you want to find out more details about. Make sure it shows “Active” in the status.

In this example, we’re selecting “911 DRIVING SCHOOL OF LACEY”.
License Query System step-by-step instructions for looking up Driver Training Schools

If the school is certified for testing, it will show in the “Endorsements” section.

Once you’ve done reviewing the school, you can:

- Click on “New Search” to look for another school
- Close the browser window if you’re done

Image: Screenshot of the License Query System showing a certified testing location for a Driver Training School.