

Primary Residence Address Exception

Use this form if you qualify for an exception to providing a primary residence street address. Submit this form with the Vehicle Title Application.

The mailing address provided on the Vehicle Title Application is my current address and I am exempt from providing my residence address because:

- I am exempt by law from paying the motor vehicle excise tax or local transportation fees and charges.
- The vehicle is exempt by law from motor vehicle excise tax or local transportation fees and charges.
- I am homeless.
- I am active duty military and my home of record is Washington State. However, I am currently stationed in another state or jurisdiction.
- I am not a Washington resident, but need a valid Certificate of Title to get a title in my resident state/jurisdiction or my vehicle MUST be registered in Washington State.
- Mail delivery is not available at my Washington primary residence or principal place of business street address.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the information I have provided on this form is true and correct.
