

August update

Release 2 Fuel Tax, Refund, Audit, Financial Review and Collections

- Implementation of Release 2.1 of the PRFT Modernization system has been completed which allowed for early registration of our Fuel Tax accounts.
- Implementation of Release 2.2 has been completed for our Unlicensed Refund customers and Fuel Tax accounts.
- Release 2.3 went “live” on August 15, the last release in the new Fuel Tax System adds an audit component. It also allows our customers to receive ACH (electronic) refunds via the Taxpayer Access Point (TAP).

Reminder for Fuel Tax Licensees and Refund Customers

All Fuel Tax Supplier, Distributor, Importer and Exporter licenses expired June 30, 2016. Licensees must reapply to continue operating in Washington. This does not impact IFTA licensees.

Fuel Tax Refund customers must also reapply for a new Fuel Tax Refund Permit Account to receive refunds.
